An Act to enable the East India Company to raise a further Sum of Money upon Bonds, instead of increasing their Capital Stock; and to alter and amend an Act, passed in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relative thereto. [10th June 1811.]

T C 2 245

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it was enacted, *As Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money for further increasing their Capital Stock, and to amend the Provisions now existing respecting the present Stock of the Company in the said recited Act, after ratifying, that the Affairs of the United Company of Merchants of England required a permanent Addition of a considerable Sum of Money beyond what the said Company could raise under the Powers then vested in them by Law, the said United Company are authorized and empowered to raise Money for enlarging their then Capital Stock or Fund of Six Millions of Pounds, to say Six or Seven not exceeding the further Sum of Two Millions Capital Stock, so that their whole Capital Stock should not exceed the Capital Sum of Eight Millions: And whereas by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled, *As Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money upon Bond, instead of increasing their Capital Stock, the said Company are authorized to borrow, upon Bonds to be issued under their Common Seal, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two Millions Sterling, over and above such Sum and Sums of Money as the said Company could then lawfully raise on their Bonds, and to apply the Money so to be borrowed and raised, for such Purposes as under and by virtue of the said Act of the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, the Money to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said Company was applicable; and by the said Act of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, it is provided, that when the said Company should have raised any Part of the Money which they were thereby authorized to raise by Bond, then and so long as such further Bond Debt, or any Part thereof, should continue, all the Money thereafter to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said United Company, under and by virtue of the said Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, should be applied towards the Reduction of the Bond Debt of the said United Company, until it should be reduced to the Sum which the said Company might then lawfully raise by Bond; and in case the said Company should enlarge their Capital Stock, under and by virtue of the said Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, before they should have increased their Bond Debt under the Authority of the said Act now in recital, that then the Sum which they were thereby empowered to raise on Bond, should be reduced by the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling in respect of every One hundred Pounds Capital Stock so enlarged, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Amount of Capital Stock which should have been created: And whereas a considerable Part of the Debt incurred by the Engagement of the said Company in the East Indies, and which was incurred by means of territorial and political Expenses in that Country, has lately been discharged in India, by means of Bills drawn by the Governments of the said Company in the East Indies upon their Court of Directors in London; and thereby it has become necessary for the said Company to provide in this Country a much greater Sum of Money than in the ordinary Course of these Transactions was wont from the Sales of their Goods and the ordinary Receipts and Means of the said Company: And whereas the said United Company have not yet received their Capital Stock, under and by virtue of the Powers contained in the said Act mentioned Act; and it is expedient that the Power of the said United Company to raise Money upon their Bonds should be enlarged, so that they may be enabled either to raise a further Sum by Bond, or by Increase of their Capital Stock; therefore, that the Provisions in the said last recited Act, as to the Application of the Money to be raised by increasing the Capital Stock of the said Company, and as to the Reduction of the Power of the said Company to increase their Bond Debt in a certain m^o, should be repealed, and that other Provisions should be made in respect thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and he it lawful so and for the said Company, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India for the time being, at any time or times hereafter, to borrow upon Bonds to be issued under their Common Seal, any further Sum or Sums of Money

And whereas the Profits and Emoluments of the said Office have been divided equally amongst the said Persons accordingly: Be it therefore enacted, That the Composition or Allowance heretofore authorized to be made and granted by the Lords of the Treasury, upon the Abolition of the said Office of Comptroller in the Port of London, shall be paid to and for the Use of the Person who are at the time of the passing of this Act, or shall hereafter be legally entitled to demand and receive the Profits and Emoluments of the said Office under the Will of the aforesaid Francis Earl of Gainsford, if the said Office had not been abolished under the Provisions of that Act, and to no other Person or Persons whatsoever.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever it shall be found necessary to make a new Appointment under the Authority of this Act, for the Execution of any of the Duties of either of the Offices mentioned in the Tables hereto annexed, marked (B) and (C) which may be deemed requisite to be performed, although the Patents for the Offices may be abolished, the Commissioners of the Customs shall in all such cases by an Account of the same before both Houses of Parliament, within Fourteen Days of the Beginning of the Session next after such Appointment, describing the Office, and the Amount of the Salary which shall be appointed for the same.

X. And whereas it is expedient that the Benefits intended to be afforded to Trade and Commerce by the said recited Acts should, without Delay, be extended as much and as generally as possible, and that Merchants and Traders should be exempted from the Payment of any Fee, Penalties, Gratuity or Reward, to any Officers, Clerk or other Person employed in the Service of the Customs, except as hereinafter is provided: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, no Fee, Penalties, Gratuity or Reward, whether necessary or of any other Sort or Description whatever, shall be required, taken or received, by any Officers, Clerk or other Person executing or performing or sitting in the Execution or Performance of any of the Duties, or sitting in any of the Offices or Employments in or belonging to His Majesty's Customs in the Port of London, for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter or Thing done or performed, or to be done or performed by any or either of such Officers, Clerks or other Persons, on account of or relating to any such Office or Employment, except as hereinafter is provided; and all such Officers, Clerks and other Persons respectively, shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, receive each annual Salaries or other Allowances as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, shall deem to be reasonable for the Labour and Trouble of executing the Duties of their respective Offices or Employments; and if any such Officers, Clerks or other Persons, shall, at any time after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, require, take or receive any Fee, Penalties, Gratuity or Reward, whether necessary or of any other Sort or Description whatever, either directly or indirectly, except as hereinafter is provided, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, on account of or relating to any such Office or Employment, or for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter or Thing, done or performed, or to be done or performed, either therein or in the Performance or Execution of any Orders or Directions he may have received from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, though the same shall be lawfully offered or given, every such Officer, Clerk or other Person so offending, shall, as Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, as any Four or more of them, be, for the First Offence, forever disqualified from his Office or Employment, and be rendered incapable of ever again holding or executing, or sitting in any Office or Employment in the Service of His Majesty's Customs or Excise.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any of the Solicitors of His Majesty's Customs from charging and receiving any Fees which they have lawfully accustomed to charge and receive as assessors of the professional Business which they transact in their respective Offices.

XII. And whereas it has long been the Practice for Merchants and others concerned in the Importation and Exportation of Goods, to hire and employ such of the Officers or Clerks in the Long Room of the Custom House as, in preparing, free and passing Entries of Goods Inwards and Outwards as they thought proper: And whereas it is expedient and necessary, for the Accommodation of Trade, that Merchants and others should not be prevented from availing themselves of the Assistance afforded by such Officers and Clerks, when they may require it, but that the Fee or Reward for such Assistance should be regulated and ascertained: Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, it shall be lawful for any Officer or Clerk employed in the Service of the Customs in the Long Room of the Custom House London, to receive such Assistance as aforesaid to Merchants and others making Entries Inwards and Outwards, and to take or receive for the same such Fee or Reward only as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four or more of them with the Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from time to time think proper and just, and any such Officer or Clerk who shall take or receive any greater Fee or Reward for such Service than shall be so allowed and directed, shall be subject to the Penalties of this Act, and be punishable as a Person receiving illegal Fees, contrary to the Provisions thereof.

XIII. And whereas Inconvenience might arise to Merchants and others making Entries at the Custom House in the Port of London if the several Collectors and Receivers of the Duties of Customs in the said Port were to be obliged and liable to the Penalties of this Act, in case they were to receive more than the proper lawful Amount of the Duties of Customs due on any such Entry not according to Six Pence, or according to a Practice which has long prevailed: Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to prevent any Receiver or Collector of any of the Duties of Customs in the Port of London, from receiving and applying to his own Use in such beyond the proper lawful Amount of the Duties legally due on any Entry as shall not in any Instance amount to the Sum of Six Pence beyond such proper Amount of Duty; that it is hereby, in the total Sum of the Duties upon an Entry produces a Pension under Six Pence, he may receive the Six Pence, and where it produces a Fraction between Six Pence and One Shilling, he may receive the Shilling, provided that the Merchant or other Person making such Entry shall be desirous and willing to pay the same, but not otherwise.

XIV. And whereas it is necessary, for the Accommodation of Merchants and Traders, that Warrants of Entries Inwards in the Port of London should, in certain Cases, be issued by the several Receivers and Collectors of the Duties of Customs, and exported and delivered to the proper Officers appointed to discharge or deliver the Goods imported on any such Entry, without waiting the usual Course of daily Business: And whereas the Practice of granting such Accommodations to Merchants and others has long prevailed, and would, if discontinued, be attended with much Inconvenience to Trade: And whereas it is just and reasonable that the Officers of the Customs, by whom such Warrants are to be issued and exported, should receive a modest and reasonable Recompense for the extraordinary Trouble occasioned thereby: Be it therefore enacted, That in case any Merchant or other Person making any Entry issued in the Custom House in the Port of London shall be desirous of having the Warrant of such Entry dispatched before the usual Hour of delivering the Goods to enter, it shall be lawful for the Receiver or Collector of the Customs in the Port of London, whose Duty it may be to issue such Warrant, and for the Officer commonly called the Clerk of the Warrants in the Long Room of the Custom House London, to export and pass the same through the proper Officers, provided the Merchant or other Person making any such Entry shall request to be so accommodated; and in such case the following Gratuity shall be paid to the said Officers, viz. to the Receiver or Collector whose Duty it may be to issue such Warrants, the Sum of Six Pence for each Warrant so issued, and so much to the Officer commonly called the Clerk of the Warrants, the Sum of One Shilling for each Warrant so exported, and so more; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. And whereas every Person in the Office of the Collector of the Customs outwards in the Port of London, are directed and employed (especially to write Cockets for the Shipping of Goods for the Purpose of Exportation: And whereas it has been customary for the Merchants and other Persons exporting Goods for Exportation, to hire and employ such of the said Cocket Writers as they shall think fit to write such Cockets: And whereas it is necessary for the Accommodation of the Merchants, and to facilitate the regular Shipping of Goods intended to be exported, particularly during a Period of Business, that such Practice should be allowed: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, it shall be lawful for any Merchant or other Person making an Entry in the Custom House in the Port of London, of Goods intended to be shipped for Exportation to Foreign Parts, and for which it is necessary a Cocket should be set, provided, to hire and employ any or either of the Persons holding the Office of Cocket Writer writing such Cocket; and it shall not be lawful for any such Cocket Writer so employed as aforesaid to receive from the Merchant or other Person making any such Entry, such Fee or Gratuity according to the Trouble occasioned by writing the same, as shall be agreed on between the Person making the Entry, and such Cocket Writer; any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Fee or Gratuity shall not in any case whatever exceed the Sum of Five Shillings, including the Expense of the Parchment on which such Cocket shall be written, which

Parliament

Perceive the said Cocket Writer shall provide at his own Expence; and any such Cocket Writer who shall take or receive any greater Fee or Reward for writing any such Cocket than is heretofore allowed, shall be subject to the Penalty of this Act, and be punishable as a Person receiving illegit. Fees contrary to the Provision thereof.

XVI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Officer or other Person holding, exercising, or acting in, or performing the Duties of any Office or Employment in the Customs in the Port of London, from receiving such Reward or Satisfaction, for or on account of any Detention, Seizure or Forfeiture, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or any Penalty or Share of Penalty or Compulsion, which, under any Law now in force, or hereafter to be made in relation to the Duties of Customs, he is or may be legally entitled to; or to prevent any such Officer, Clerk or other Person, from receiving any Allowance, Gratuity or Reward, which the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, may think fit to direct.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to alter the Hours during which Officers, Clerks and other Persons, employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, are required to attend for the Execution and Discharge of their respective Duties, by the before recited Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for abolishing Fees received by certain Officers and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, and for regulating the Attendance of Officers and others so employed.

XVIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, shall and may direct and enforce the Attendance of any Officer, Clerk or other Person, employed in the Service of His Majesty's Customs in the Port of London, at any Time and at any Place, when on any particular Emergency the Public Service shall so require, and also direct and enforce the Attendance of any Clerk whatever, or of any Officer or other Person so employed in the Service of the Customs receiving duty Pay, or of any Officer or other Person employed in the Water Guard, at such Hours and Times, and at such Places as the said Commissioners shall think fit and requisite for the proper Discharge of the official Duties of any such Officer, Clerk or other Person.

XIX. And he it further enacted, That every Person who from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve shall be appointed to any Office or Employment in or belonging to His Majesty's Customs in the Port of London, shall at their respective Admissions thereto, or who, having been so appointed and admitted, shall not have taken the Oath of Office required by Law before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve shall, instead of the Oath prescribed by an Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, take the following Oath: that is to say,

I A. B. do swear to be true and faithful in the Execution, to the best of my Knowledge and Power, of the Trust committed to my Charge and Inspection in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, and that I will not receive, take or receive, any Fee, Prodigit, Gratuity or Reward, whether necessary or of any Sort or Description whatever, either directly or indirectly, for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter or Thing, done or performed, or to be done or performed, in the Execution or Discharge of any of the Duties of my Office or Employment, on any account whatever, other than my Salary, and what is or shall be allowed me by Law or by any Special Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the time being. So help me GOD.

XX. And, in order that proper Compensation may be made to any Officer, Clerk or other Person employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, who may sustain Loss by the Abolition of Fees directed by this Act, he it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, in cases where, on the Extinction and Empting, it shall be made appear to them, that the Salaries or Allowances to be paid to Officers, Clerks or other Persons, employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, as a Reward for their Labour (in future) in the Execution of the Duty of their respective Offices or Employments, may not amount to so much as it might be just and reasonable to allow to the present Possessors of such Office or Employments by way of Compensation for the Loss of Fees formerly received by them respectively, to order such further annual Allowances as they the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall deem just and reasonable to be paid to any such Officer, Clerk or other Person; such further Allowance to commence from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and to continue during the time any such Officer, Clerk or other Person, shall hold any such Office or Employment: Provided always, that in case any such Officer, Clerk or other Person, shall be removed to any other Office or Employment in the Service of the Customs, the annual Salary or other Emolument of which shall not amount to more than the Salary and the further Allowance by way of Compensation hereby directed to be made to any such Officer, Clerk or other Person, would have amounted to, then and in such case the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may continue to any such Officer, Clerk or other Person, the Allowance they may have granted by way of Compensation for Loss of Fees, or any Part thereof, notwithstanding such Removal as aforesaid.

XXI. And whereas certain Officers, Clerks and other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, have been in the Practice of receiving Fees not authorized by Law: And whereas it is necessary and proper that such Persons should be indemnified from any Prosecutors to which they might be liable in consequence thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That every Officer, Clerk or other Person employed

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to regulate the Trial of Causes, Judgments and other Proceedings which arise within the Lordship of Man, Guernsey and Jersey Corporate within this Kingdom, it is amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and law, to be lawful for any Prothonotary or Prothonotary to possess, or to have in his or her Office, or any Office or Offices committed or charged to be committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate, to the Jury of the County next adjoining to the County of such City or Town Corporate, to be and charged to enquire for the King for the Body of such adjoining County, at any Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery; and that every such Bill of Indictment made by a true Bill by such Jury should be valid and effectual in Law, as if the same had been made by a true Bill by any Jury sworn and charged to enquire for the King, for the Body of the County of such City or Town Corporate; And whereas it was further provided by the said recited Act, that if it should appear, in any manner therein mentioned, to any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of any City or Town Corporate, that any Indictment found by any Grand Jury of the County of such City or Town Corporate, or any Inquisition taken before the Coroner or Coroners of the County of such City or Town Corporate, or other Justices, was fit and proper to be tried by a Jury of any next adjoining County, that the same Proceedings and Trial should be had, and the same Judgment should be given as would and law to be had and given in cases of Indictments or Inquisitions for the like Offences committed within such next adjoining Counties; but in Power was given in cases of Convictions, in pursuance of any of the Provisions in the said recited Act, of ordering the Liberation of the Sentence in the County of the City or Town Corporate within which the Offence had been committed, and was charged to have been committed; And whereas it may be fit and expedient, that in such cases the Parliament should be satisfied, and the best way put in Execution, in the respective Counties of the Cities or Towns Corporate where such Offences had been so committed; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which any Conviction shall have taken place in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited Act, to order every such Convict to be punished according to Law, either within the County where such Conviction shall have taken place, or within the County of the City or Town Corporate wherein such Offence shall have been committed; and in cases where the Court shall order such Convict to be punished within the County of such City or Town Corporate, it shall and may be lawful for the Court after passing Sentence upon every such Convict or Convicts to order him, her or them to be delivered into the Custody of the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or other proper Officer or Officers of the County of such City or Town Corporate, and the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or other proper Officer or Officers of the County of such City or Town Corporate to and are hereby commanded to receive into his or their Custody every such Convict or Convicts, and to execute the Sentence so passed upon him, her and them in such adjoining County, as if he, she or they had been tried and had received such Sentence in the County of such City or Town Corporate.

And whereas it is provided by the said recited Act, that in all cases of Indictments and other Proceedings which may be tried before His Majesty's Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, for any County in pursuance of the Provisions contained in the said Act, it should and might be lawful for such Justices to order the Expenses of the Prothonotary, and of the Witnesses, and of the several Expenses payable in pursuance of the Statutes in such cases made and provided as the Commission of Officers, to be paid by and to the same Person and in the same manner as the same would have been payable if such Indictment had been tried in the Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery of the County of such City or Town Corporate; And whereas it is just and expedient that a similar Provision should be made for the Payment of all other Expenses which may be incurred by any such adjoining County in relation to any Person who may be tried or removed for Trial in such adjoining County, for any Offence committed or charged to have been committed in the County of any such City or Town Corporate; It is therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, in any Session thereof holden for such County, and they are hereby requested to order all Expenses whatsoever incurred by such County in relation to any Person who shall be tried in such County or removed thither for Trial, for any Offence committed or charged to have been committed within the County of any such City or Town Corporate, as well as maintaining and supporting such Person and carrying the Sentence into Execution in any other respect, to be repaid to the Treasurer of such County or other Person acting as Treasurer of such County, or who shall have actually paid such Expenses, by the same Person or Persons and in the same manner as the same would have been payable if such Offender or Offenders

Act, in the said Enrolment, which, as by the said Act, Statute, or Proclamation, or other, manner, granted, bargained and sold, with their Rights, Liberties, Privileges, and De Leacy among his Commissioners in the Office of Supremacy, and by the said Act, Statute, or Proclamation, or other, manner, granted, bargained and sold, of Barwick Mayor Council as aforesaid, and of and from all Clergymen, Ministers,

 Act of Parliament, discharged from all Charges of the Crown as aforesaid, and held Land, containing Fifty Acres or thereabouts, Part of Essex Upper of Essex Essex Essex, in the County of Essex, which had been let out and of the Commission of an Inquisition Act passed in the Forty second Year of as Land to be sold to pay the Expenses incurred by that Act, and which Land contracted to sell to the said Oliver De Leacy, in consideration of the Sum of Pounds, which was paid by the said Oliver De Leacy to the said Commission, and whereas a being ascertained that the said Commission appointed by the said Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid, did not take by Oath of Qualification directed by the said Indenture Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid, prior to his setting out and alienating the said Two Pieces of Land, containing Fifty Acres or thereabouts, an Land to be sold to pay the Expenses incurred under the said Act, and he nevertheless to sell the same to the said Oliver De Leacy, as aforesaid, it was conceived that the said Contract and Act of the said Contract to sell were void; and accordingly he the said Commission, having first taken the Oath of Qualification as directed by the said Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid, did, on or before the Sixth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and eight, in presence of the Judges and Justices given to and referred to in that Act, and the Act therein recited, and for the Purpose of passing and their pay the Charges and Expenses incurred in obtaining and passing the said Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid, and of all other incidental Charges and Expenses whatsoever preparatory to the said Indenture, and of conveying the same unto Essex, sign and sell Two Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing together Fifty Acres Part of Essex Upper Common aforesaid, lying in the aforesaid Manor of Essex Essex Essex, being the same Lands as were originally let out and alienated, and contracted to be sold by the said Commissioner as aforesaid: And whereas the aforesaid Sum of Six hundred and forty five Pounds, so paid to the said Commissioner George Swallow by the said Oliver De Leacy as aforesaid, remained in the Hands of him the said Commissioner, and he the said Oliver De Leacy being defrauded therein the said Two Pieces of Land containing Fifty Acres should be alienated and referred to the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock, and their Heirs and Assigns, upon the Trusts of the said Indenture of Bargain and Sale, and Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid; and that they the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock should as such Trustees become the Payeees thereof for the said Sum of Six hundred and forty five Pounds, the Money of the said Oliver De Leacy, to be paid by him to the said Commissioner as aforesaid, by the said Commissioner George Swallow did, by an Instrument in Writing under his Hand, dated the Sixth Day of Fe- bruary One thousand eight hundred and eight, acknowledged to have that Day received of and from the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock, Trustees of the said Oliver De Leacy, the Sum of Six hundred and forty five Pounds, to be applied by him in satisfying such Charges and Expenses as were in and by the said Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid directed to be paid and discharged by the Sale of such Land, being the best Price that could be gotten for the same Pieces or Parcels of Ground; and he the said Commissioner George Swallow did declare the same to be the full Amount of the Parolike Money for the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the same Pieces or Parcels of Land to be concluded by the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock, Trustees of the said Oliver De Leacy: And whereas the said Commissioner George Swallow duly made and executed his Award in Writing pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of the Forty second Year aforesaid, dated the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eight, and did thereby first set and assign and allot the Part or Parts of the Common or Waste Leach by that Act directed or authorized to be divided or excluded next hereinafter particularly described, being the aforesaid Two Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing Fifty Acres; that is to say, One Piece or Parcel of Land, containing Twenty Acres One Rod and Thirty six Perches, marked on the Plan shewn annexed III.
 bounded on the East by Allotment marked VII. on the said Plan, and on the South West and North Sides thereof by the First, Third and Fourth described Public Roads or Highways, the Fences on the South West and North Sides whereof the said Commissioner did thereby order and direct to be made, and for ever after maintained and kept in Repair by the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock, Trustees as aforesaid, or the Owners of the said Allotment for the six being; and One other Piece or Parcel of Land containing Twenty one Acres Two Rods and Four Perches, marked on the said Plan, bounded on the East by an Allotment marked XX. on the said Plan; on the North, East, West and North by the Second, Third and Fifth described Public Roads or Highways, the Fences equal which said Roads the said Commissioner did thereby order and direct to be made, and for ever after maintained and kept in Repair by and at the Expense of the said William Mifflin and Joseph Alcock, Trustees as aforesaid, or the Owners of the said Allotment for the same being, which said Two Pieces or Parcels of Land containing together Fifty Acres, the said Commissioners had set out, signed and attested as being in his Judgment sufficient to make a complete Sum of Money for paying the Charges and Expenses of obtaining and passing the said Act of the Forty fourth Year aforesaid, and all other incidental Charges and Expenses whatsoever, for or by reason of or in pursuance of the said Act and Indenture, and of carrying that Act into complete Execution: And whereas the said William Myford and Joseph Alford have, in Execution of the Trusts expressed in them by the said several Indentures of Bargain and Sale, and Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, contracted to sell to a Purchaser a considerable Part of the said several Estates, comprising the said Two Pieces of Land, containing Fifty Acres; but no Obligation hath been made to the Title of the said Fifty Acres, upon the Ground that the same are not well settled in the said William Myford and Joseph Alford upon the Trusts aforesaid, by the Contract and Award made by the said Commissioner George Scaeville, with and to them the same Trustees as aforesaid, and also that the same Lands are not discharged from the Chimes of the Crown, for the Mortar due and owing from the said Oliver De Lacey, upon the Balance of his aforesaid Accounts: And whereas it is expedient that all such Objections be removed; And whereas it is and by the aforesaid Indenture of Bargain and Sale of the Twenty seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and six, recited, that the said Oliver De Lacey had entered into a Covenant dated the Twenty fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and four, with the Right Honourable Richard Briggly Sheridan, One of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and then Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, for the Purchase of Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches of Land, situate at Effingham aforesaid, and had paid to him the said Richard Briggly Sheridan the Sum of Five hundred Pounds as the Price thereof, but no Conveyance thereof had been executed by him the said Richard Briggly Sheridan; and after such Recital, it is by the same Indenture intimated, that in consideration of all and singular the Premises, he the said Oliver De Lacey did grant, bargain, sell and assign unto the said William Myford and Joseph Alford, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, the said Contract to convey and with the said Richard Briggly Sheridan, and all Benefit and Advantage thereof, and also the said Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and all Interest due or to become due thereon, upon Trust and to the Intent that they the same Trustees should execute the said Contract to be specifically performed by a Conveyance from the said Richard Briggly Sheridan, his Heirs or Assigns, or by his or their Procurement of the said Land comprised in the said Contract, such Conveyance to be made to them the said William Myford and Joseph Alford, and their Heirs and Assigns for ever, upon and to and for such and the same Trusts, Ends, Intents and Purposes, and under and subject to such and the same Conditions, Declarations and Agreements as are therein briefly expressed and declared of and concerning the said other Hereditaments thereby directed to be sold: And whereas it is and by the said Act of Parliament of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid recited, that the Land mentioned in the said recited Indenture of Bargain and Sale, in having been contracted to be purchased by the said Oliver De Lacey of the said Richard Briggly Sheridan, from its Contiguity to the Capital Messuage or Tenement at Effingham aforesaid, comprised in the same Indenture, was extremely convenient to be enjoyed therewith, and it had not yet been ascertained that the said Richard Briggly Sheridan could make a good Title thereof, and it might happen that some Person or Persons other than the said Richard Briggly Sheridan might be capable of making such Title, and it was apprehended that, from the said Five or Parcel of Land being conveyed in the same Title with other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments of greater Value, it might be found impossible to purchase the same Piece or Parcel of Land separately and detached from such other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, it was by the said Act thereby further enacted, That if it should be found impracticable to complete the said Contract for the Purchase of the said Piece or Parcel of Land, containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches, or thereabouts, of the said Richard Briggly Sheridan, then and in such case it should and might be lawful to and for the said William Myford and Joseph Alford, or the Survivor of them, or his Heirs or Assigns, to purchase the said Piece or Parcel of Land, containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches, or thereabouts, together with any other Freehold or Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, situate in the said Parish of Effingham, or in any adjoining Parish or Place, so as the Purchase Money for the same should not exceed the Sum of Five thousand Pounds; and it was thereby further enacted, That all and singular the Freehold and Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, which should be purchased by them the said William Myford and Joseph Alford, or the Survivor of them, his Heirs or Assigns as aforesaid, should be conveyed or assigned unto and to the Use of them or his, and their or his Heirs and Assigns for ever, upon and to and for the Trusts, Ends, Intents and Purposes, and under and subject to the Powers, Powers, Declarations and Agreements in and by the said therein recited Indenture of Bargain and Sale, expressed and declared of and concerning the Freehold Messor and other Hereditaments thereby bargained and sold as aforesaid: And whereas the said William Myford and Joseph Alford having found it impossible to complete the said Contract for the Purchase of the said Land containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches, or thereabouts, separately and detached from other Lands and Hereditaments, they the same Trustees conceived it incumbent upon them to purchase the Freehold and Copyhold Messuage or Tenement, Lands and other Hereditaments described in, and granted and related and conveyed to be forementioned by the several Indentures of Lease and Release hereinbefore mentioned, of which Freehold Messuages the said Land, containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches, is Parcel; And whereas, under and by virtue of certain Indentures of Lease and Release, dated respectively the Eleventh and Twelfth Days of December One thousand eight hundred, the Receipts being made between Sir William Coary Barrett, of the said Part; and also by or under and by virtue of certain Indentures of Lease and Release, dated respectively the Eleventh and Twelfth Days of September One thousand eight hundred and ten, the Release being made or expressed to be made between the said John Rolovr Colver of the First Part, the said Bernard Cross Esquire of the Second Part, and the said William Mayford and Joseph Alcock of the Third Part, several Freehold and Copyhold Messuages, Farms, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the same Indentures particularly described, situate, lying and being in the Parishes of Eslington, Great Benildon and Little Benildon, in the said County of Surrey, of which Freehold Hereditaments the said Piece or Parcel of Land, containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches in Part and Parcel, have been, for the Considerations in the same Indentures expressed, and particularly in consideration of the Sum of Five thousand six hundred Pounds paid by the said William Mayford and Joseph Alcock to the said John Rolovr Colver, as the Purchase Money for the same Freehold and Copyhold Premises granted and released and conveyed and consented to be forwarded unto and in the Title of them the said William Mayford and Joseph Alcock, and their Heirs and Assigns for ever: And whereas the said Piece or Parcel of Land containing Ten Acres Three Roods and Fourteen Perches is Part of the said enrolled Estates contracted to be sold by the said William Mayford and Joseph Alcock to a Purchaser; An Act to suspend the Payment of all Drawbacks on Spirits made or distilled in Great Britain or Ireland, and exported from either Country to the other respectively; and to suspend the Importation into Great Britain of any Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, except such as shall have been warehoused according to Law; and for regulating the Exportation of Home-made Spirits from Great Britain to Ireland and from Ireland to Great Britain, until Three Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament. [26 July 1811.]

39 G. 3. c. 7. WHEREAS by the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it is, among other things, provided, that any Articles of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, which are or may be subject to internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which they are composed, may be made subject, on their Importation into each Country respectively from the other, to such Countervailing Duty as shall appear to be just and reasonable, in respect of such internal Duty or Duties on the Materials; § and that upon the Export of the said Articles from each Country to the other respectively, a Drawback shall be given equal in Amount to the Countervailing Duty payable on such Articles on the Import thereof into the same Country from the other: And whereas by the said Acts, and by other Acts of Parliament now in force, certain Countervailing Duties are chargeable on Spirits made or distilled in Great Britain, and on the Importation thereof into Ireland, and on Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, on the Importation thereof

* thereof into Great Britain, and certain Drawbacks are in certain cases payable on the Export of such Spirits from either Country to the other respectively. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether certain of the said Duties and Drawbacks are just and reasonable, and how far the same are therefore consistent with the Liberty and Spirit of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, For Remedy thereof and to the Intent that such Countervailing Duties should be imposed, such Drawbacks allowed, and such Provisions made as shall be judged proper for putting the Trade between Great Britain and Ireland, in respect of those made Spirits, upon a just, fair and equitable Footing according to the true Meaning and Spirit of the said Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and also that sufficient Time may be afforded for adjusting just and reasonable Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks, and for making such necessary Provisions as aforesaid, it is enacted that the Payment of all Drawbacks upon the Export of such Spirits from each Country to the other respectively should be suspended for a limited Time: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, the Payment of all Drawbacks for or in respect of such Spirits, on the Exportation thereof from any Part of Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to any Part of Great Britain respectively, shall be suspended during the Continuance of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Countervailing Duty and Drawback, which shall be payable after each Period of Suspension shall be expired, in respect of any Spirits which may have been or shall be imported into and exported from each Country respectively, at any Time after the Fifteenth Day of June last, shall be such as shall be ascertained and published for that Purpose, by any Act of Parliament, to be passed in the next Session of Parliament, before the Expiration of the said Three Months.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and during the Continuance of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to export or send, or pass for Exportation, from any Port or Place in Ireland to any Part of Great Britain, any Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, except such Spirits as shall have been or shall be received in Warehouses in Ireland, without Payment of the Duty of Excise payable in Ireland thereon, according to the several Acts in force in Ireland at the time of the passing of this Act, for regulating the making, distilling and vending of such Spirits in Ireland; and that all such Spirits shall be entered and shipped for Exportation from Ireland directly, from and out of such Warehouses only; and in case any Spirits shall be exported, or entered or shipped for Exportation, from any Port or Place in Ireland to or for any Part of Great Britain, other than such Spirits as are hereby permitted to be so exported, or in any other manner than is hereby directed, such Spirits so unlawfully exported, or entered or shipped for Exportation, together with the Casks and Packages containing the same, and also the Ships, Boats or Vessels on board which the same shall be laden or exported, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; any Act or Acts, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and during the Continuance of this Act, no Spirits made or distilled in Ireland shall be permitted or allowed to be received into any such Warehouse or Warehouses, which on the Delivery thereof for the Removal to such Warehouse or Warehouses the Quantity and Strength of each and every Cask or other Package thereof, and the full Capacity or Content of each such Cask or other Package, shall have been taken and ascertained by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, by the Hydrometer called Clark's Hydrometer, at the Distillery where the same shall have been made and distilled, nor unless such Quantity, Strength, Size, and full Content or Capacity, together with the Marks and Numbers, or Mark and Number of each such Cask or other Package, shall be specified in or indorsed on the Permit, or authorize the Removal of such Spirits from the said Distillery to such Warehouse as aforesaid; and if on the Arrival or Receipt of any such Spirits at such Warehouse, any Deficiency shall be discovered or found, by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, in the Strength or Quantity of any such Spirits, below the Strength or Quantity of such Spirits specified in or indorsed on any such Permit, then and in every such case such Spirits, together with the Cask or other Package containing the same, shall be forfeited; and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise in Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and during the Continuance of this Act, no such Spirits made or distilled in Ireland shall be delivered from or out of any such Warehouse for Exportation to any Part of Great Britain, unless the Strength thereof shall on such Delivery have been taken and ascertained by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, by the Hydrometer commonly called Clark's Hydrometer; and such Officer or Officers shall give and grant to the Exporter thereof a Certificate in Writing, in which such Officer or Officers shall certify the Strength of the Spirits contained in each and every Cask or Package thereof, together with the Size or full Content or Capacity of such Cask or Package, and the Marks and Numbers, or Mark or Number thereof, and the Quantity of such Spirits contained therein; and such Certificate shall accompany such Spirits to the Port or Place in Great Britain to which such Spirits shall be assigned or sent; and if on the Arrival or Landing of any such Spirits at such Port or Place in Great Britain, any Deficiency shall be discovered or found by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, in the Strength or Quantity of such Spirits below the Strength or Quantity thereof specified in such Certificate; or if any Spirits made or distilled in Ireland shall be imported or brought into any Port or Place in Great Britain, without being accompanied by such Certificate as aforesaid, then and in every such case such Spirits, together with the Cask or other Package containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise in England and Ireland respectively: Provided always nevertheless that no Spirits made VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, all and every Distiller and Distillers in that Part of Great Britain called England, who shall be delinquent in making or distilling Spirits in that Part of the United Kingdom for Exportation, from thence to Ireland, shall be at Liberty so to do, under and subject to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, save as is hereinafter in that behalf particularly provided, and under and subject to the like Duty and Duties, for or in respect of any Decrease or Decreases by Re-deduction, as are by Two certain Acts of Parliament, One thereof made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, among other things, for better regulating the Exportation of British made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England; and the other thereof made in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, among other things, for better regulating the Exportation of Spirits in England for Exportation to Scotland, and in Scotland for Exportation to England; or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, provided, settled or established for or in respect of Distillers making or distilling Spirits in that Part of Great Britain called England, for Exportation from thence to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and all and singular the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, except as aforesaid, Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures and Duties aforesaid respectively, shall be, and the same are hereby respectively extended to, and shall be applied, practised and put in Execution, for and in respect of all and every Distiller and Distillers, who, from and after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall make or distil any Spirits in that Part of Great Britain called England, for Exportation from thence to Ireland, as fully and effectually to all Licenses and Purposes, as if all and singular the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions and Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, and Duties aforesaid respectively, had been at large inserted in the Body of this Act, and been hereby re-enacted and made applicable to such Distillers in making Spirits in that Part of Great Britain called England, for Exportation from thence to Ireland, and to such Spirits so made or distilled in that Part of Great Britain called England, and exported from thence to Ireland.

XL. And be it further enacted, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall and is hereby required to fill up any Process defining the same to be and taken with in the Day-time, either in the Lodge or other convenient Room in the said Prison, any Professor or Professors whose Names are inserted in the before mentioned List or Lists, or the Lodge Gazette or other Newspapers, in manner aforesaid, and also to see in the true and genuine Books of the said Prisons the Entries made of the Name or Names of such Professor or Professors, Debtor or Debtors, together with the Name or Names of the Prison or Prisons at which such or Suits be, for or they are or were demanded; and if any such Keeper or Gaoler shall refuse or neglect to comply with what is hereby above required, every such Gaoler or Keeper who shall be so found in the Premises, shall forfeit and pay to the Prison to be related and approved the Sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, wherein an Affidavit, Prohibition, Wager of Law or more than One Imparance shall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Prison to be related and approved.

XLi. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Prison or Prisons shall make or cause to be made any false Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Prison or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or shall prepare or keep, or cause to be prepared or kept, any false Book or Books, so order for any false or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein, or shall insert in any List to be delivered in as aforesaid, the Name or Names of any Prison or Prisons who was or were not in actual Custody as aforesaid (except as in the Oath of any such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper shall be excepted) every such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper shall, over and above the Penalties which he shall be liable to for every such Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with Triple Costs of Suit, by and in the Name and for the Use of any Prison or Prisons who shall be prejudiced by any such false Entry or Entries, which Penalties shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein an Affidavit, Prohibition, Wager of Law or more than One Imparance shall be allowed.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor, being the person required by any Creditor or Creditors, shall refuse to come to the Lodge of the Prison in which any such Prisoner shall be confined, or when come to such Lodge shall refuse to deliver and declare the Trade or Occupation and the last Place of Abode or Habitation, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, of the Prison or Prisons at which such Debt he or she was detained or charged in Custody, without some reasonable Cause being shown for such Refusal, every such Debtor, as Person being made thereof before the Justices at any General or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforesaid, shall not have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any writ or writs notwithstanding.

XLIII. And whereas the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which shall happen after the passing of this Act, may be in the farthest Part of the County, and extends of Twenty Miles from the Prisons where Debtors are confined; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as shall be assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the said Sessions to the Session House in Horseshoe Lane, in the Parish of Newington, in the said County of Surrey, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths required to be taken and subscribed by this Act by the several Gaolers within the said County, and for the Discharge of Prisoners or other Debtors according to the Powers, Limitations and Directions of this Act; and it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said County of Surrey, to sit in his or their Warrant or Warrants for the bringing up of any Prisoner or Prisoners in order to his, her or their Discharge under the Provisions of this Act, at any Quarter-Sessions or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, other than such as shall be holden at the Session House in Horseshoe Lane, in the Parish of Newington aforesaid.

XLIV. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of York or Lincoln, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings or Divisions, all of which have several Commissions of the Peace; and if the Gaoler of such Gaol be obliged to carry the Debtors, Prisoners therein, to the Quarter-Sessions of such Riding or Division, the same will be a very great Charge, not only to such Gaoler but also to the Prisoners in these large Counties; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for Two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties, (or any other County or Counties where the Prisoners are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are hold) at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at any other Gaol or Gaols within the said Counties, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet and to hold Sessions there by Adjournment from their respective Quarter-Sessions, from time to time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations and Directions of this Act.

XLV. And whereas the District or Division of Helmsland in the said County of Lincoln, is distant near Forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of the Peace sitting for the said Division, to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol, for the sole Purpose of discharging the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given; Be it therefore enacted, That for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Helmsland may adjourn their several Sessions to the County Gaol, or some Place near thereto; and it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace sitting either for the Parts of Lincoln, Yorkshire or Helmsland, to hold such adjourned Session for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners, Notice of the Adjournment of such original Sessions being given by the Clerk of Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there in regular the Proceedings of the said

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and eleven, in any of the Kingdoms of England and Wales, and every one, for not paying the said Fees, Rents or other Demands due or claimed as due to the Keeper or Keepers of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon any other Account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, he or they taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

XLVII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to discharge any Prisoner seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty such which he or he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or of any Person for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any of them, or any Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other public Officer upon any Bond returned into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to His Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps or Salt Duties, or any other Branches of Public Revenue, unless any Two or three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall certify their Consent, and their Hands, in the said Justices at three full Sessions or Adjournment thereof, for the Discharge of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

XLVIII. And whereas under former Acts Creditors have been put to great Expence and Trouble in attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of this Act (a), to oppose the Discharge of Debtors clearly indebted from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having been before one Justice and refused a Discharge, gave such Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to be discharged, with the sole View of keeping and suffering to languish their Creditors: To remedy which, be it further enacted by the Act aforesaid,

That in all cases whatsoever, the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Debtor shall get rid of the Objections or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and that for the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to file the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them; and in all cases whatsoever it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at some one subsequent Session within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months after he shall have been so committed, upon Application of the Prisoner, and due Proof as Oath or otherwise to the Satisfaction of the Justices in Session or Adjournment, of such Objections or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served at least Twenty Days previous to such Application on the Creditor or Creditors who before applied for Discharge, and of Notice likewise inserted in the London Gazette in manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and if they shall then be of Opinion that the said Debtor is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, to adjudge him or her to be entitled thereto, and, if a Prisoner, to order him or her to be discharged, he or she taking the Oath, and in all other respects conforming to the Directions of this Act. (a) [See the Original Act.]

XLIX. And whereas it may happen that several Persons who may claim and be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, are seized of an Estate that is some Freehold Land, Tenements or Hereditaments, which Estate, with the Remainder thereof expectant, they have by Law Power to defeat and bar, either by livery of a Fine or Free, livery of a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries whereby the said Freehold Land, Tenements and Hereditaments of such Person or Persons would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors: Be it therefore further enacted, That in every such case such Person or Persons is/are to be called as aforesaid, and who shall be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever in Law be deemed and taken, and it is and are hereby declared to be seized of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Fee, and the same shall be delivered up to such Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had actually levied a Fine, livery of a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries, and thereby had become seized in Fee; any Law or Construction of Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

L. And whereas many Persons who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act have been great Debtors, or otherwise engaged in huge Transactions, whereby they may be entitled to thereby and great Debts and Demands of various and various Natures, and they may be entitled to Equities of Redemption of Estates subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments or other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, Remainders, or other contingent Estates, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or Interests or Estates both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath by the Prisoner to be discharged as aforesaid, or which may want to be added and added to, make out, recover or manage for the Benefit of his Creditors: Be it therefore enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Estates of such Debtor or Debtors who shall declare his, her or their Discharge in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, from time to time to apply to any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Town, Place or Liberty where such Debtor or Debtors shall be then residing, whereby defining that such Debtor or Debtors may be further examined as to any Matters and Things relating to his, her or their Estate or Estates; whereupon such Justice shall send for or call before them such Debtor or Debtors by such Warrant, Summons, Writ or Process as they shall think fit, and upon such Debtor's appearing, shall examine him, her or them, as well upon Oath or otherwise, as to such Matters and Things as such Assignee shall define, relating to the Estate and Estates of such Debtor.
